

About Us

Who We Are

NOEMA Ensemble is a music ministry organization operated for religious and educational purposes. We are a community where music majors and non-music majors come together to praise God, serve neighbors, and deliver a positive influence to society through music.

NOEMA Ensemble was founded on the belief that music is a precious gift given by God and a powerful tool that connects people with people and heals hearts. Through education, performances, service, and various community activities, we help individuals develop their musical talents, grow in faith, and share their received gifts with neighbors.

Also, through community performances, music education programs, charitable activities, and various outreach ministries, we seek to deliver hope and love and achieve unity beyond generations and cultures. Our goal is not simply to perform music, but to deliver vitality and comfort to people's lives through music, allow them to experience healing and restoration, and glorify God by practicing service.

To NOEMA Ensemble, music is not simply a performance. Music is our ministry, service, and calling to change the world.

Our Story

Noema Ensemble was founded to unite musicians of all backgrounds in using music as a tool for service, community engagement, and Christian ministry.

NOEMA Ensemble began with the vision of reinterpreting the deep faith value of hymns in a modern and popular musical language and sharing it with more people. We believe that music can go beyond simple artistic activity and become a tool that connects people, builds community, and serves as a tool of service and ministry.

Music majors and non-music majors come together, and through music, through performances and education, service and outreach, we seek to deliver comfort, courage, and new hope.

As we live life, everyone faces moments when they are lonely, tired, and struggling. NOEMA Ensemble seeks to deliver the message, "You are not alone," even in those moments. Through music, we want to share the fact that someone is praying for you, someone is cheering you on, and God's love is still with you.

We believe that music can comfort people's hearts, heal wounds, and give strength to stand up again. NOEMA Ensemble seeks to become a music ministry community that delivers hope to the world and glorifies God through praise, service, and the power of community.
